

Volunteer with

P3

What we're looking for:

- An interest in maintenance
- Empathy with people who have complex needs
- Understanding of confidentiality
- Welcoming & helpful
- Patient & calm
- Punctual & reliable

What's in it for you?

- A pathway to potential employment
- The chance to share your skills/experience
- Be part of a national P3 team, committed to social inclusion
- Access to learning and development opportunities
- Travel & meal expenses

For more information, contact volunteers@p3charity.org